Product data sheet

Weroplast® X-Ray Detect

Detectable plasters

Intended use/ Instructions for use:

For covering skin injuries. Clean and dry the wound and surrounding skin thoroughly. Change the plaster at least once a day and check the wound.

Suitable for direct contact with food.

Area of application:

- Certified food businesses and suppliers with foreign object detection using X-ray or metal detectors
- wet working areas, where splash water
- Light to moderate contamination

Product features:

- X-ray and electromagnetic detectable
- Waterproof and oil-resistant film
- Highly elastic
- Hypoallergenic
- Latex and rosin free
- Wound dressing does not stick to the wound
- Breathable
- Individually sealed (except for wound dressings sold by the metre)

Plaster shapes:

Quick wound dressing, fingertip plasters, finger plasters, plaster strips

Material:

Backing material: polyurethane film (PU)
Adhesive: Acrylate-based
Wound dressing: viscose, wound side does not stick to the wound
Backing: Aluminium foil = electromagnetically detectable, additionally fixed with X-ray detectable tape = X-ray detectable

Colour:

Blue

Storage:

Store away from sunlight. Store in a dry place.
Temperature range: 5°C – 25 °C

Shelf life:

5 years from date of manufacture. Please note the expiry date printed on the product.

Classification:

Class I medical device

ERSTE HILFE

WERO GmbH & Co. KG · Idsteiner Straße 94 · 65232 Taunusstein · Phone 0 61 28 / 97 57 0 · Fax 0 61 28 / 97 57 50 · info@wero.de · www.wero.de

Manufacturer: HOMANN-MEDICAL GmbH u. Co. KG,
Am Weserufer 39, D-31592 Stolzenau

Distributed by: WERO GmbH & Co KG, Idsteiner Straße 94, 65232 Taunusstein, Germany, info@wero.de, www.wero.de

November 2025, V06, Fü